Task 1

Fill in the gaps with the words from the box above. There are two extra words.

The beginning of autumn is called an Indian summer if the weather is still warm. Usually it is just (1)_____ summer. There is still (2)_____ of sunshine and the evenings are soft (3)_____ to take long walks.

We say that autumn is a rich season because the trees are (4)_____ of fruit and most of the vegetables are harvested at the beginning of autumn, too. In Hungary the grape harvest, that is (5)_____, is a great feast. Friends and relatives come together to pick the grapes from the (6)_____, to press them, pour the grape juice into wine-casks and left it ferment for a while to be decanted later.

The rainiest season is definitely autumn. All kinds of precipitation may (7)_____ during the autumn months from (8)_____ and rain through mist, fog, hoar frost and sleet to snow.

In autumn the leaves of trees slowly become coloured, you can see yellowish, brownish and reddish (9)_____. In October the weather is very changeable: one day it is as if it were summer the next is just like in winter. In November there is often frost. School children are not very (10) _____ on autumn because this is the time that the new school year starts.

Task 2

What kinds of precipitation is mentioned in the text?

Task 3

Name as many autumn fruit and vegetables as you can.
